Description

Ray White Marine presents the 2024 VESPRO 55, a 16.5-metre Italian sports yacht lying in Sydney Harbour. Built by Centouno Navi and designed by Marco Arnaboldi, she pairs a low, sculpted profile with twin MAN V8 diesels and waterjet propulsion. Her listed top speed of 54 knots gives her the pace to cover ground quickly, while her open deck is made for taking your time at anchor.

Generous sunpads at the bow and stern give guests a choice of places to stretch out, while the sculpted hardtop shades part of the teak-laid cockpit. The open layout suits a long lunch on the harbour just as well as an afternoon spent swimming off the stern.

Centouno Navi VESPRO 55 | Standard model specifications

Length overall— 16.50 m

Beam— 4.60 m

Draught— 1.00 m

Construction— Lightweight carbon and fibreglass composite

Engines— Twin MAN V8 diesels, 1,200 hp each

Propulsion— Twin MJP 350X waterjets

Fuel capacity— 2,900 litres

Freshwater capacity— 450 litres

Builder-published performance— 56 knots maximum, 50 knots cruising

The waterjets and shallow draught suit days spent exploring sheltered bays, while the two-cabin interior gives family or guests a place to retreat below deck. A galley and bathroom make it easy to turn a day on the water into an overnight stay.
